5 Public Reports

Agenda No.	Report Title	Submitted by:
5.1	Third Statutory Biodiversity Report 2017-20	Chief Officer: Place
Outline of report and summary of discussion
The report sought approval of the Third Statutory Biodiversity Duty Report 2017-20 for publication on the Council's website as well as being forwarded to the Scottish Government. The report advised that Biodiversity was the variety of life including plants, animals, micro-organisms and bacteria interacting with each other and the non-living environment to form living ecosystems, cleanse the air and water, pollinate crops, break down waste, control pests and diseases and regulate natural events. The report highlighted that the Wildlife and Natural Environmental (Scotland) Act 2011 required public bodies to publish a Biodiversity Report every 3 years that set out the actions taken in carrying out its Biodiversity duties. The Biodiversity Report was attached as an appendix. Derek Oliver was heard in amplification of the report after which there was a general discussion on this matter.
Decision
(a) To approve the appended report as the Council's Third Statutory Biodiversity Report 2017-20; (b) Agree to the publication of the Third Statutory Biodiversity Report on the Council's website as well as providing the Scottish Government with a copy.

5.2	Integrated Children's Services Inspection Report	Chief Officer, Children's Services, Partnerships and Communities
Outline and summary of item
The purpose of the report was to provide feedback from the recent Joint Children's Services for children and young people in need of care and support within Midlothian and the areas for improvement highlighted. Formal feedback in relation to the inspection was received on 6 July 2020 with the following grades awarded; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Leadership and Direction – GOOD • Impact on Families – GOOD • Impact on Children and Young People – GOOD • Improvement in the safety, wellbeing and life chances of vulnerable children and young people – GOOD • Evaluation Scale 4 GOOD = Important strengths, with some areas for improvement The inspection identified a number of key strengths and good practice as follow; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Leaders had embraced their collective responsibility to protect children, demonstrated through their well embedded, collaborative approach to quality assurance and scrutiny. • Staff recognised risk and took timely and appropriate action to keep children safe, and key processes for assessing and managing risk for children and young people in need of care and protection were well established. • The wellbeing of children in need of care and protection was improving, with most children and young people benefiting from positive and caring relationships with staff and carers. • As a result of operational and strategic effort, partners had achieved significant reduction in the overall number of looked after children and young people and a reduction in out-of-authority placements. • Children and young people had their rights respected and they benefited from opportunities to have their voices heard throughout the well-established Champions Board structure. The priority areas for improvement were identified as; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • While children and young people in need of care and protection were helped by a range of purposeful interventions, access to the specialist services required to help them recover from trauma, was not always available at the time they needed it. • The partnership recognised that more needed to be done to raise educational attainment and reduce the number of care experienced children and young people excluded from school.

- Outcomes and experiences for care experienced young people transitioning into adulthood were variable. The partnership had identified this as a key area for improvement.
- Collaborative leadership of corporate parenting had not yet consistently achieved partner's ambitions for improved and wellbeing across all groups of care experienced children and young people.

In conclusion the Care Inspectorate reported;

- That they were very confident that the partnership in Midlothian has the capacity to continue to improve and to address the areas identified for improvement.
- Evidence of strong partnership working at all levels and a confident and competent workforce committed to improving outcomes and experiences for children, young people and families.
- The effective Champions Board structure and continued effort from staff across the partnership to enable children and young people to influence service design and improvement.
- The strength of scrutiny and oversight of child protection practice and the drive for continuous improvement.
- The partnerships record of improvement to date in relation to the impact of services on care experienced children and young people.

Joan Tranent was heard in amplification of the report after which there was a general discussion on this matter.

Decision

The Performance Review and Scrutiny Committee:

(a) Noted the many strengths within the report which evidenced strong partnership working at all levels in addition to the partnership's record of improvement to date in relation to the impact of services on care experienced children and young people;

(b) To congratulate all staff involved within this process across the community planning partnership for their commitment and good work;

(c) To develop an action plan to take forward the priority areas for improvement;
