

Motion to Midlothian Council

29th August 2017

Midlothian Council commits to addressing period poverty by providing free sanitary protection products in all schools and Council workplaces in order to ensure women who are menstruating are not adversely impacted or unable to attend school or work because they are unable to afford the heavily taxed products every month.

Proposed by

Councillor Catherine Johnstone

Seconded by

Councillor Debbi McCall

